

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

At Clive CE Primary School, we follow the Shropshire Agreed Syllabus for Religious Education 2014. Through this children learn about different religions, being able to describe them and discuss their beliefs, preparing them for adult life as citizens in a multi faith country.

In addition to this, children learn from the different religions that they study, so that they can pose and answer questions about faiths worldwide.