

Responses to Christian Distinctiveness Survey (parents)

You said...	We will...
90% said your child feels happy and included	Continue to ensure that everyone feels happy and included
95% said children from all backgrounds are warmly welcomed	Continue warmly welcoming everyone through our gate
85% said your child enjoys learning in RE	Ensure that all lessons are fun, engaging for all and active
100% children are given opportunity to learn and understand the Christian faith in school	Continue to teach about the Christian faith and demonstrate Christian principles
95% said children are given opportunity to learn about other faiths in school	Be explicit about which faiths are being taught and encourage those in school of other faiths to talk about their faith
95% of children enjoy collective worship in school	Continue to make worship as engaging as possible
80% of children are given opportunity to lead worship in school	Encourage children to lead worship in their class worship times. Allow classes to take turns in leading occasional worship and invite parents in to watch.
80% would like to be invited to worship in school
60% acknowledge that it is important that your children attend a Church of England school	Highlight the positive differences between a church and community school
90% of children flourish in their wider personal development.	Encourage the children to develop as individuals and be proud of their personal achievements

Comments:

- Both my children enjoy taking part in Worship at Clive school. I feel they are learning a lot about the Christian Faith, which we then discuss at home.
- Worship appears to be a very important part of my son's day, they often talk about it at home fondly...especially if they are chosen to blow the candle out at the end.
- I cannot comment on the lockdown teaching as my child wasn't in the school
- A wonderful school where each of my three children have thrived and been encouraged to be their very best.
- Both my children enjoy taking part in worship at Clive School. I feel they are learning a lot about the Christian Faith.
- It is wonderful to be included in a school where those leading worship and assemblies have a tangible faith in Jesus
- Both Children enjoy it.
- Where I've answered 3 it's actually N/A but that wasn't an option. School already invites parents for worship at Christmas/Easter etc which is the right level of invitations.
- We know our child enjoys it, especially when we can share their worship when it is in the local church
- My child especially likes the singing
- I like that worship is sometimes taken outside to woodland school. The school has close links with the church and the vicar. It's great that the vicar comes into school and even greater that he talks about these school visits during other church services.